

RESPECT Center 2023 Conference

March 3, 2023

Let's Talk Palliative Care: Coming Together Again

A day-long statewide conference designed to bring together healthcare clinicians and researchers to discuss best practices in palliative and end-of-life care.

*Embassy Suites Noblesville / Indianapolis Conference Center
13700 Conference Center Drive South, Noblesville, IN 46060*

Opening Plenary: Benzi Kluger, MD, MS

"Palliative Care for Parkinson's Disease: Building Evidence and Changing Culture to Foster A Higher Standard of Care"

Session Topics include:

- Early Conference Session – Indiana Network for Hospice and Palliative Care Meeting
- "Joy, Suffering, and the Goals of Medicine: Applying a Positive Framework to Clinical Care, Research, and Self-Care"
- "Caring for our patients with limited English proficiency and the use of interpreters"
- Palliative Care in Pediatrics
- Innovations in Spiritual Care
- Palliative Care in the Outpatient Setting
- Legal Updates
- Poster Sessions

Call for Poster Abstracts – The submission deadline has been extended to January 15, 2023

Submission Portal

Pre-conference workshop - "Mastering Tough Conversations"

March 2, 2023

An interactive, immersive communication skills course that focuses on difficult discussions with patients and their families. While recognizing that there is no foolproof recipe for how to traverse these conversations, clinicians need to have a toolbox of skills to be able to have difficult conversations well.