Advanced Steps® (AS) ACP is initiated as a component of quality end-of-life care for frail elders and those whose death in the next 12 months would not be unexpected. The AS planning conversation is focused on goals of care to make timely, proactive, and specific end-of-life decisions. Ideally, these decisions are documented as medical orders that can be followed throughout the continuum of care. The Physician Orders for Scope of Treatment \(POST\) program is the nationally recognized model for this stage of planning.

Target Audience: The AS ACP Facilitator Certification course is intended for healthcare clinicians (nurses, social workers, chaplains, physicians) and others involved in assisting those with serious illness or frailty in making treatment decisions based on their goals of care.

Objectives

- Describe the goals of AS, a POST Paradigm program.
- Identify interview skills for facilitating LS conversations.
- Identify skills to assist individuals in making informed treatment decisions that include CPR, limitations on treatment, and comfort care.
- Develop strategies to create a POST form that accurately reflects an individual's treatment preferences.
- Identify systems to honor the POST plan.
- Demonstrate beginning competency in facilitating LS conversations through role-play activities.
- Initial Certification Requirements
- Completion of the AS ACP Facilitator Certification Online Curriculum (Modules 1-4 and Module 5)
- Completion of the AS ACP Facilitator Certification classroom training (8-hour classroom instruction)

IUPUI RESPECT Signature Center

The IUPUI Research in Palliative and End-of-Life Communication and Training (RESPECT) Signature Center is a collaborative, interdisciplinary scientific community of researchers and clinicians who work together to advance the science of communication in palliative and end-of-life care across the lifespan. Established in 2010, the IUPUI RESPECT Center is supported by IU School of Nursing; the IU School of Medicine, Division of General Internal Medicine and Geriatrics; the IU Simon Cancer Center; and IU Health. The goals of the Center are to: accelerate the development of innovative, descriptive and intervention research trials relevant to communication and decision-making in children, adolescents, adults, and elders with serious and/or life-threatening illness; develop new community partnerships for translational science to enhance palliative and end-of-life care research and practice; and create mentorship opportunities for developing scholars who will become the next generation of productive, passionate palliative and end-of-life care researchers. RESPECT Center activities include faculty review group meetings, visits by international experts in palliative and end-of-life care, and pilot funding to support preliminary work.
